Erforderliche Vorkenntnisse: Englischkenntnisse vergleichbar Abiturniveau

Prüfung: 2-stündige Klausur zu Englisch I und II

Kommentar: Course work of this compulsory language program is based on a selected number of texts that are taken from a broad area of business and economics-related publications. Our aim is not to teach economic or management theories: the emphasis is on language. 'Language', however, is to be grasped and understood in the context of various types of texts (US and British magazines, textbooks, company brochures etc.). Ultimately, the aim is to provide students with some of the basic English language skills necessary to study successfully and to compete in an increasingly competitive and global environment.

Grundlegende Literatur:

Fink, H.: Econotexts I, Econotexts II, Econotexts, Oldenbourg Verlag
