Handwritten text in three columns, likely a list or index, written in a historical script. The text is faint and appears to be bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The script is a dense, cursive Gothic or similar historical hand. The first column contains approximately 15 lines of text, the second column contains approximately 15 lines, and the third column contains approximately 15 lines. The text is arranged in a regular grid pattern across the page.
